

Islip, NY – Islip Town Supervisor Phil Nolan and Town Councilman John Edwards recently honored the three winners of the Habberstad BMW Green Essay Contest.

The entrants wrote essays describing their efforts to keep their homes, schools, and communities environmentally friendly. The winners were selected by the Town of Islip's Clean Energy Committee, and the schools of each winner received a check for $1,000 to be used toward a Green Class Party.

Pictured (left to right) are Jeremy Alicandri, Executive Vice President of Habberstad Auto Group; Councilman Edwards; Shreeya Panigrahi, of Sayville Middle School; Fariha Bhuiyan, of Brentwood Middle School; Jaclyn Citarella, of Bayview Elementary School; and Supervisor Nolan.